

THE WOMAN'S HOME.

THE NEW BUILDING TO BE FORMALLY OPENED TODAY.

The Noble Work of the Flower Festival Society—The Building, and the Uses to Which It Will Be Put.

The annual Flower Festival has become one of the leading events of the year in Los Angeles. The two festivals which have already been held—in 1885 and 1886, respectively—were cumulative successes whose fame has spread all over the United States, and has become another attraction to the Eastern visitors. From the plans already matured it is certain that the coming festival, next month, will far surpass its predecessors. It will be held in the fine and spacious pavilion now in course of erection at the corner of Olive and Fifth streets.

by Hon. H. T. Hazard and associates. Some idea of the magnitude and elegance of the display of flowers may be had from the following paragraph descriptive of a few items in last year's festival:

The representation of the old Mission Church of San Gabriel, nine feet in length, was wholly in flowers. The walls were of white marguerites, closely packed; the roof of double red geraniums, relieved with gray moss; the floor of wild flowers in great variety, and all of these were renewed from day to day, as they faded. The ice cream booth had an exterior dado four feet in height a mass of calls bloom against a background of calla green. Between the platform and floor of the hall was an incline many yards in length, formed of closely laid roses of all shades, fascinating to the eye and puzzling to the powers of calculation. It was estimated that there were in the hall during the show 50,000 callas and at least 400,000 roses from the gardens of Los Angeles and vicinity. A barrel of flowers sent from a single private garden in Santa Ana contained 250 blossoms of one kind; also from Santa Ana, on one day, 1500 roses were sent.

The work of the Flower Festival Society has been for the purpose of founding a home for girls and women dependent upon themselves for support. It is not to be a charity, but a self-supporting institution, which will give the comfort and the protection of a home to a class needing both. The proceeds of the two festivals and of an equally brilliant loan exhibit have put the

The society last year bought and paid for a fine lot on Fourth street, just east of Main, the price being $200. It also owns about

Upon the above lot the society has just completed an elegant $14,000 building for its Home, and it is now occupied. It will be open to the public today, the ladies giving a reception to all who are interested in the progress of this noble undertaking.

architect, is 43x95 feet, three stories and a basement, frame, with mansard roof. It is one of handsome modern design and looks home-like, despite its size. Entering the main entrance the visitor stands in a wide, high hall running the whole length of the building. On the right the first room is the spacious and handsome parlor. Next back of this, and communicating with it by sliding doors, is the equally large and attractive dining-room. The two apartments can be thrown into one at will, and form an admirable auditorium for evening entertainments or receptions. Back of the dining room comes the kitchen, a large and cheer-

On the left hand as one enters the front room is the cosy office of the Woman's Exchange, of which more will be said below. Back of this is the broad main

On the second floor, the southeast corner front is occupied by the sitting room—really a study, for the bookshelves are the really charming place, which goes for $100 a day. There are also fifteen sleeping rooms on this floor. At the back end of the hall are a chute to the basement, for soiled clothes, a large bedding-closet and bathroom.

large, well-lighted and well-ventilated. The sleeping-rooms are pleasanter than can be found in most good hotels. The interior arrangement of the whole building shows the true feminine skill in household planning. All the little but important details which go so far toward making life worth the living.

In the high, light basement is the hot-air furnace. Here, too, will be the laundry and a cooking-school.

The furnishing of the home is quite out of the handsome. Besides the furniture used in the rented building on Fort street, the society is indebted to several generous donors. W. E. Beeson, Niles Pease & Co., and the Los Angeles Furniture Company have earned especial gratitude. H. W. Mills furnished one chamber in very handsome style.

and gave $100 besides, with which handsome carpets were secured for the parlors. Mrs. Slauson fitted up a room, and Mrs. H. Boyce another. Mrs. C. E. Day had loaned a piano for today's reception.

THE WOMAN'S EXCHANGE.

One of the most important features of the Home is the Woman's Exchange, which occupies the southwest corner front. It has very pretty quarters, which will grow even more attractive as it fills with articles. It is the object of the Exchange to provide a place where everything that a woman can make well, for which there is a market, may be deposited for sale, and where orders for such work may be received—where nice prepared lunches can be had on order—flowers furnished on order, where ready pen women can be engaged to write visiting cards and direct and send out invitations and readers can be obtained to entertain in the rules for depositors. Under the safe room is a compartment of the bank vault, floored with cement and adopted to the safe storage of canned fruits, preserves and pickles. There is ready a creditable display of infants' wardrobes and other beautiful needle-work.

The Home has been doing good work ever since its inception, having had more applicants than it could accommodate. The all-day reception today promises to be very largely attended.

As the charge was not proved, he moved that the matter be referred to the Finance Committee, without giving the name of accused.

THE CHARTER MATTER.

City Attorney Daly gave a verbal report on the Charter Committee's work while at Sacramento. Mr. Daly said they reached Sacramento on Friday evening, went to the Capitol building and arranged to meet a number of interested gentlemen that evening. There were present delegations from Oakland, Stockton and San Jose, all wishing city charters. The question was debated till 11 o'clock at night. The ideas of Los Angeles people didn't harmonize with those from other places. San Jose and Stockton delegations were willing to agree on something, but others were not willing, and it was soon apparent that there could be no agreement between them on several points that were vital to Los Angeles. At one time a charter was agreed upon, except by Mr. Vrooman, of Oakland. He took it with him over night, and changed it beyond recognition.

Finally a bill was prepared and sent in which related solely to the question of issuing city bonds for permanent improvements. It provided for cities issuing bonds in series, not exceeding twenty years to run, and shall be issued only by consent of three-fourths of Council, approval of the executive and three-fourths of the voters at an election to be held, if necessary, for the purpose. One-twentieth of the bonds shall be redeemed each year, beginning with the first year. Interest at 5 per cent, and commissioners shall be appointed to make said definite improvements, whose terms expire at their completion. The bill probably passed the Senate yesterday.

Council voted thanks to the committee, and, after an executive session, adjourned.

WOODFORD'S LECTURE.

Interesting Discourse at the First Freesbyterian.

Col. Woodford prefaced his evening address by paying a glowing tribute to the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. If it could only have one more "twenty years" set back, it would succeed in driving every saloon out of the country.

In the first years of a man drinking he is ashamed to go into the low dives he goes into the high-toned saloons—bouts in less than ten years the high-toned saloon will be ashamed of him, and probably there will even be no low doggery that he will dare go into.

Oh, how often it has been the experience of men, that they torture the body to help themselves forget the suffering of the mind; how many have stood before the bar and poured the drink down their throats to make them oblivious of the past!

I tell you, drink never takes possession of a man without many attendant vices getting in. You cannot run a man upon a high virtue; neither will you find one who drinks that has not taken into his breast many other vices.

Mr. Woodford dwelt upon the use of unforgotten wine in the church. He said it was easy for a reformed man to fight against the temptations of the saloon, but a consecrated temptation was hard to fight.

High license is a snare—a whiskey snare put out to catch good temperance men. When the sentiment of the people is for prohibition, then political parties will begin to urge high license, and to clamor for it.

The first necessity in a man's reformation is to get the devil out of him, whether it be the devil of drink, of gambling, or any other devil. It is not God's plan to save a man from the effects of drink while all the time he is continuing in his sin.

Whenever you are in doubt about the propriety of an amusement, why kneel right down and ask God's blessing upon it. If you cannot do that, you know where to place it.

Young man, if you are setting out to make a drunkard of yourself, be sure that drink will go back upon you in all the fair promises it makes you. But be sure you will get plenty of advice—that is a cheap commodity. What do I want of a man's advice or prayers who, 365 days in the year, will help to place temptation in my way, and who, by his ballot, will make it possible for me to fall.

Ah, if you are in doubt about casting your vote for high license, why kneel down and pray over it if you love your conscience will be free from any license guilt if you can do that.

Give me the friend that not only pities me, but is anxious to succor me. Intense human sympathy was the secret of Christ's great hold upon the people, and we cannot improve upon it. When a man gets ashamed to tell what the license done for him, when you find a man who is ashamed to testify publicly in favor of his temperance principles, keep near to him—he will need to be bolstered up. Many a man has died in the gutter, because he did not dare turn the tongue's corner. God will never bless a selfish reformation.

Who knows but the wounds of sorrow and sin may develop most precious pearls in the process of divine healing?

TOY YUK.

A Partial Hearing of the Will—Remains Forfeited.

In the hearing of the will of habes corpus yesterday morning before Judge Cheney, the counsel for petitioner made exceptions to the mittimus under the statute in the case, and claimed that the justice's court had no jurisdiction in the case of a minor child not charged with or convicted of any crime whatever, and if it had, the commitment is void because it does not specifically describe any crime or misdemeanor, nor the place where such act was committed, nor that the person committed had a trial by jury; and the court made no order committing Toy Yuk to the custody of any officer whatever to carry out the terms of commitment. Wherefore counsel claimed that neither court nor justice's court had any authority to detain the child Toy Yuk. They claimed, also, that the place to which the child had been committed by these papers was not a corporation and was out of the county. Their fight was chiefly upon the papers themselves. Judge Du Puy, for the State, in answer to the exceptions, said: "The Sheriff, in making his return to the court, had given his authority for having custody of Toy Yuk. The commitment is from a justice who had examined the case of Toy Yuk upon an affidavit, as the statute provides, and finding she was under 16 years, without parent or guardian, and was found in the company of prostitutes, he had ordered, for her own welfare, that she should be sent to the care of the county, and the expenses paid out of the Los Angeles county treasury. No other course could have been followed. The commitment was ordered not in the way of penalty, but in the exercise of the police powers of the justice's court."

The counsel for petitioner still urged that it was a case of equity in which the justice's court had no jurisdiction, and in any case, the mittimus was void and the child illegally held, as there was no crime specified, and the Superior Court alone has jurisdiction over minors.

Judge Cheney intimated that in the absence of specific misdemeanor charged against Toy Yuk, a justice had no jurisdiction in the case. It is clearly a case in equity, which belongs solely to the Superior Court, and justice's jurisdiction cannot trench upon that of a court of record.

It was ordered that the witnesses for both sides appear on Monday, March 7th, at 9 a.m., to which time hearing is continued. Toy Yuk is in the custody of Mrs. Watson, agent for the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society of San Francisco.

INCORPORATED.

Four Companies File Articles of Incorporation.

Four new companies filed articles of incorporation in the County Clerk's office yesterday. First on the list comes the Southern California Floral and Perfumery Company, which proposes to carry on a general floral, nursery and seed business, and to manufacture perfumes. The directors are Emory E. Smith, W. H. Masner, H. A. Unruh, F. L. Binford and E. G. Wheeler. Capital stock, $30,000; amount subscribed, $3100.

The Del Monte Irrigation Company is incorporated for the purpose of supplying water to those persons to whom the Pomona Land and Water Company has conveyed water rights, and others. The principal office will be at Pomona. The directors are B. S. Nichols, of Burlington, Vt.; H. A. Palmer, of Berkeley, and F. L. Palmer, H. E. Stoddard and F. G. Tompkins of Pomona. Capital stock, $400,000; amount subscribed, $5000.

The Claremont Water Company also filed articles of incorporation, and agreed to buy and sell water and water rights in Los Angeles and San Bernardino counties. The directors are the same as in the two Pomona corporations—capital stock, $50,000; amount subscribed, $5000.

NEWMAN'S ESTATE.

In the case of petition of Newman, asking for letters of administration on the estate of his brother, the allegations in which were published some days ago, Judge Cheney held that there was sufficient proof of publication of summons in the case of Mary Muldanado against her husband for divorce, and that the defendant was under the jurisdiction of the court granting divorce, and consequently the order of court subsequent in relation to the estate of George B. Muldanado, child of Mary Muldanado, by Newman, deceased, was valid, and the statute gave Mary Muldanado, guardian, the precedence as administratrix over the brother of the deceased. So ordered.

FRENCH SOCIETY'S EXHIBIT.

Strangers in Los Angeles should not fail to visit the French society exhibit at No. 313 N. Main street, and see some of the products of "fruitful Fresno," get information and documents in relation to the case of George B. Muldanado, child of Mary Muldanado, by Newman, deceased, was valid, and the statute gave Mary Muldanado, guardian, the precedence as administratrix over the brother of the deceased. So ordered.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

Grand Street Railroad Franchise.
LOS ANGELES, Feb. 28.—[To the Editor of THE TIMES.] A short time since, by your courtesy, I called attention to the danger resulting from the form of street railway franchises employed by Council. The applications for new franchises now pending in Council, and especially the application of the Central Railway Company for permission to change its road to a cable or an electric road, impels me to again direct attention to this vital matter.

The granting of a franchise to build and operate a road is a valuable property to the company; unless they so regard it they would not apply for it, nor would they put money into the building of the road; and, on all principles of public policy, the roads should be encouraged. But all roads should not be encouraged, and monopolies should not be given.

Yet to grant the application made is to practically give the roads applying a monopoly of the streets through which they go. This has been done in the past. In the case of the Central Company, they already enjoy the monopoly of the streets through which they run for horse-cars; but their desire to put in a cable or an electric road gives the people a chance to do away with this monopoly and to prevent its revival. The franchise of this company gives them some of the main streets of the city—streets which should be open to all lines needing them. Should we not do as other large cities do—reserve the right to allow other companies to run on these streets when necessary, that they, too, may reach the center of the city, and so accommodate the people traveling on them? Villages can afford to have but one line of street cars, but cities cannot. Think of the busy centers of San Francisco, Chicago and New York, and picture the enormous value of a monopoly of those streets to any one company.

Council can readily prevent these evils. First of all, they should fix a standard width of track, to which all roads as built, and old roads as remodelled, should be made to conform; then they should reserve the right for future lines to use parts of the tracks of other roads in the center of the city; of course on making proper compensation to the older company.

This matter is too vital to be neglected. Council cannot ignore it without failing in their duty to the people. We know they are kept busy with this thankless business of the city; but we know, too, that in these reckless grants they are hurting this city, and are helping to build up monopolies which thrive even when restricted; but which, unrestricted, revel in the wealth that the city fathers hand upon them.

CIVIS.

[The franchise of the Central Railway Company was granted by the Council yesterday.—ED. TIMES.]

Notes from Methodists.

At an enthusiastic meeting of the Los Angeles Methodist Episcopal Ministerial Association yesterday morning, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, that we, the Methodist Episcopal preachers of the Los Angeles Preachers' Meeting, do hereby express our unqualified approval of the San Francisco Preachers' Meeting in resolving to make the Maclay School of Theology the theological institution for all Methodism on the Pacific Coast. We also hereby obligate ourselves to further, in every legitimate way, the interests of this most worthy and needed school, and do now most heartily commend this as one of the grandest enterprises we have yet undertaken to all friends and members of the Church.

The second resolution related to the new church to be built on Hope street. Resolved, that we commend the construction of the Hope-street Simpson Methodist Episcopal Church in this city as one worthy of the most hearty support. It will honor the most eloquent and able men of our church, and broaden and deepen the influence of our growing Methodism in the city. We are confident that this movement will be pushed to completion, and become a perfect success under the management of such representative and liberal men as those who have taken the matter in hand.

The Courts.

T. Flaherty, convicted of battery, will be sentenced March 1st by Justice Austin. Louis J. Jacobs, same offense, is continued to March 1st. Richard Morton, burglary of the California saloon, held to answer under the sum of $500 bail. Fourteen men, captured in Congress Hall and charged with vagrancy, were tried. Five were discharged, five sent up for ten days, three for five days and one for three days.

In Taney's court, Silvestre Durrow was held to answer to the charge of murder without bail. Lee Yum, grand larceny, discharged.

Judge Cheney continued the habeas corpus writ for Tsou Yuk till March 7th, at 9 a.m. In the case of B. Newman, letters of administration were granted to Mary Maldonado, guardian of George B. Maldonado, in the estate of Michael Newman, deceased. Bond $10,000.

Judge Hutton is still hearing the trial of People vs. Levering, for perjury.

Mrs. Parker's Lecture.

Mrs. Margaret E. Parker, of Dundee, Scotland, late president of the World's W. C. T. U., delivered an address Sunday evening on the subject of "Woman in the Temperance Cause." In the Third Presbyterian Church, corner of Hill and Pine streets. The main-street M. E. Church united in the service with the Presbyterian, making an audience of over 300. Mrs. Parker was listened to with unflinching interest for nearly an hour, as she recited in a natural, pleasing way how the American crusade had quickened the womanhood of Great Britain to take the front in the temperance cause, and how, under Mrs. P.'s own leadership, the British Association was already coming shoulder to shoulder with the American sisterhood. A collection of nearly $20 was given to speed Mrs. Parker on her world-wide tour, and a most practical manifestation of her effective effort was in the signing of twenty-five new members to the thus-far feeble union of the Morris Vineyard.

Hope, the New York burglar, released in San Francisco, but at once rearrested. Wreck of a San Francisco brig. Chief Justice Morrison not expected to survive this week. The Atchison gets control of the narrow-gauge road from Port Harford to Los Alamos. Bank robbed at Lagrange, Mo. Sale of a famous vineyard near San José. Large fire in New York. Proceedings of the California Legislature. Another eruption of Mauna Loa. Tragedy near San Rafael. The railway between Walla Walla and Pendleton, Ore., opened. A San Francisco murderer sentenced. Proceedings in Congress. A Pullman passenger robbed near St. Louis. Steamer rates to Europe raised. Distress among Topolobampo colonists. A colored man nominated Recorder of Deeds of the District of Columbia. A conference necessary on the Pacific Railway resolution. Eulogies in the House on the late Congressman Cole. Further accounts of the railway disaster near The Needles. The Geary-street road, of San Francisco, sold. Threatened strike of Milwaukee, Wis., Boston police stop a prize fight printer. The opera season opened in New York. Baldwin Gardner, the absconding stockbroker, compromises with his creditors.

THE Jeffreys-Lewis person has had the alleged fond bonds of wedlock struck off for her accommodation by a San Francisco judge.

REV. D. COBB, formerly of East Los Angeles and Santa Barbara, writes a letter to THE TIMES from Mexico, in that State, describing an eastern winter, fruit-growing and other subjects of interest.

THE height of different monarchs is thus given: The Emperor of China is only 5 feet tall; Emperor William of Germany is the tallest, being just 6 feet; Prince Albert of Germany, nephew of the Emperor, is 6 feet 6 inches tall; and the Emperor of Russia is nearly 6 feet.

CHIEF JUSTICE MORRISON is reported at the point of death, and Jerry Sullivan is in the ante-room waiting to lay eager hands on the ermine the moment it shall have been laid aside by its former wearer. Sullivan is a Democrat, a Roman Catholic, and first cousin to Orpheus C. Kerr.

APPLICATION for an important railroad franchise has been made to the Council by Charles E. Raymond, L. W. Dennis and their associates. The matter came up yesterday, and was postponed. The projectors propose the construction of an extensive line, and have the means and the ability to push the work to an early and successful completion.

THE Oakland Tribune has a characteristic fling at Los Angeles under the heading of "Eloquence and Smallpox." THE TIMES has girded up its loins and will shortly make a crushing rejoinder under the caption of "Yellow Fever and Yawp," holding up Oakland to the scorn and contempt of the entire civilized world and Alameda county. Stand from under, Athens!

MRS. DRUSE, the husband-slayer, has gone hence by way of the scaffold, after having confessed how she shot and carved up her late beloved consort. Mrs. Druse's case aroused great sympathy in the community where she was known. The tender-hearted brethren and sisters considered her in the light of a martyr, and appealed in vain to the Governor to save her delicate neck.

THE San Diego Union, the oldest paper in the city of bay and climate, appeared Sunday morning in eight-page form. This is the third change involving an increase of size that has been made since the beginning of the current volume. On the 6th of June last the paper assumed a new dress of smaller type and increased the length of the columns. On the 18th of October the number of columns was increased from seven to eight, with a proportionate increase in length. The Union is a good paper—an enterprising and reliable one—and THE TIMES is pleased to note its prosperity.

A SON OF ANABAS.

The Sacramento Bee keeps it up. It publishes a two-and-a-half column letter from some anonymous and mendacious correspondent, deriding Southern California from end to end, and compressing more misrepresentation into the same space than we have yet seen in the columns of the enterprising and highly inventive Bee. This correspondent opens out in this pretentious style: "Having been engaged in editorial and special reporting work on several of the leading journals of the southern counties of California during the past summer and autumn, and having traveled extensively throughout the counties of Los Angeles, San Bernardino, San Diego, Ventura and Santa Barbara during the same period, the writer feels specially competent to convey information regarding the present state of the counties named, and the secret of their success within the past few years." With this prelude, in which he unwittingly "gives himself away" (to draw on the classics of the country), this modern Munchausen goes on through columns and proves himself to be a liar of unusual fertility of resource, even for a Bee correspondent. We do not propose here to refute his false statements about the southern country; they carry their own refutation with them in the minds of intelligent persons. But we should like to know who this anonymous prevaricator is. We should like to learn the name of the son of A-manias. We should like to know what "leading journals" the fellow has been engaged in "editorial and special reporting work" upon, and how it happened that he "severed his connection" with the same. Ten to one he was given the g. b. by some contemporary, and now seeks to "get even" on the country by writing it down in the Sacramento Drone. Ten to one, too, that when he was engaged in Southern California "journalism" (if ever) he was scythically wrote in the same mendacious spirit about Northern California, under the mistaken impression that he could thereby please his employer and continue a little longer his engagement on the "leading journal" at the munificent salary of two dollars and a half a week and washin'. Such correspondents fatigue us.

"The Cahuenga."

THE TIMES makes some mention, the other day, of a section of Los Angeles county which, in the opinion of good judges, is destined to be the scene of the next, or an early, big boom in outside lands. The Cahuenga region (our quaint old friend, Maj. Holbrook—peace to his memory!—used to call it "Cowrange") is referred to. It is a choice stretch of country lying under the protecting flank of the Sierra Madre, facing the south and open to the breeze without being rudely swept by its harsher winds. It is in full view from the high hills to the westward of the city, and, late in the afternoon, lying in the shadow of the purpling mountains, is as fair a vale as eye ever rested upon.

The Philosopher of the Cahuenga Mountains, having read our notice, sends in the following prompt acknowledgment, which, though it scatters a good deal, is not without point and savor:

CAHUENGA, Feb. 27.—(To the Editor of THE TIMES.) Your able notice of a hillside section of Los Angeles county, in the vicinity of Cahuenga, is the best geological evidence of the nature of the process. A company that expended half a million dollars in Ventura county are sending a well down here. It is underlain by the same geological structure. These are the periods emphasized and marked by Agassiz and others as following the different glacial epochs. Ours being a world past the middle age, these glacial periods are very much further apart in their occurrence. There may never be but one or two more before the final demise of our planet.

The oils and gases stored in the caves and fissures of the earth consumed, and the spaces thus occupied filled with water, it is estimated may eventually lower the ocean sufficiently that no water is left on the surface. Then our world would be likely to look like a moon to a planet the same distance away. The three Herschels, in their faithful records of the science of world-building, lived long enough to demonstrate the truth. The sister, although nominally not an astronomer herself, showed herself the fit assistant of such indefatigable devotees of science as her father and brother—feeding one with crumbs of bread at such times as his duties required his constant inspection of the heavens through the telescope. This observation for years took the mind of William Herschel into a field of thought where only the godlike are usually found—into a field of world-building where the process is viewed for a sufficient length of time to look upon it as a garden of the most beautiful flowers, wherein but the kinds, bud, expand, blossom, droop and disappear, thus giving all the shades of beauty that would appear in a garden of most rare flowers. The changes of the earth's polar axis, which may never occur again, have been so sudden as to destroy most of the life on its surface. This, occurring at periods when the lives of animals now extinct were at their best, buried large amounts of flesh and fat, from which come the different oils and gases that supply the oil and gas wells and springs. This is proven by the immense deposits of elephant fat at the mouth of the Lena River, in Siberia, that are yet in a good state of preservation, and the coal deposits in Bering Straits.

The asphaltum deposits on the Brea rancho, in this district, are standing evidence of the existence of oil in the bowels of Mother Earth, whether it came from dead fish of the sea or from land-suckers of bygone ages, who may have been planted there. Speculations on this point are, however, comparatively valueless in this progressive and matter-of-fact day, when the thing sought for by practical men is capacity in the land to produce net results. Judged by this standard, the Cahuenga will make out for itself "a good case."

"The Solidarity of the Sections."

Recently this paper had some remarks, under the above caption, designed to show the folly and injuriousness of sectional quarrels in California, involving the qualities, capacities and advantages of the different parts of the State, when comparisons between them are in the nature of the case impracticable, unnecessary and unwise, by reason of the great diversity in resources, capabilities and productions of the different districts. All these differences are necessary to a complete whole. It was the idea of unity in diversity—the solidarity of the sections—that we aimed to illustrate. We showed, as we have so often showed before, that it is not necessary for Northern California to attempt to grow oranges in order to make progress in population, development and wealth; or to attempt anything else in the field of culture to which that region is not by nature adapted. Nor is it necessary for Southern California to try to imitate the methods, practices and achievements of Northern California in order to win. Both sections have peculiar and rich resources of their own, and true wisdom lies in the development of those resources, each section for itself, to the fullest capacity. What one section will produce another will not, and vice versa.

In furtherance of this idea of cultivating the solidarity and the harmonious relations of the sections, far removed as they may be, the following remarks are pertinent. They were written by a Los Angeles correspondent of the Pacific Rural Press, and are a credit to their author, whoever he may be, and to the section from which he writes:

Now, a word as to this unseemly, injudicious and injurious rivalry. It has so lately sprung up, that a little effort would elicit at once and in full the reasons for its existence. The jaded merchant, the large State that the inhabitants of San Diego county, over 800 miles away, are also California. The jaded merchant, the large State that the inhabitants of San Diego county, over 800 miles away, are also California.

Canada's Interest in the Products of the Golden State.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—[Special.] David Walker, a prominent citizen of Toronto, Canada, and who arrived here a few days ago after spending some time in Los Angeles, was seen today respecting his visit to California. Mr. Walker stated that he came mainly for the purpose of arranging for an exhibit of California wines at the next annual Industrial exposition of Toronto, which opens in September next. Continuing, he said: "I started for this coast with no other object in view than a pleasure trip. I was not delegated by the Exposition Association. In fact, I was not aware I was to assume the task until I reached Los Angeles, at which place I received a letter requesting me to endeavor to induce some of the leading California wine-makers to exhibit their products at our next fair. There are at present three exposition associations in Canada, viz: the Dominion, Provincial and Toronto associations. The last-named is the one I represent. The Toronto people were not satisfied with quadrennial exhibitions, as they formerly were held. They wanted annual ones. Delegates were selected by the various industries, and from the local board of trade and City Council. From the representatives a board of directors and officers were selected to carry out the project. This was in 1876."

"Does the United States usually contribute to these fairs?" was asked.

"No; very seldom. Occasionally we get an exhibit from some of the bee-hives of the United States, and I believe, Dakota gave us a display one year."

"In what manner, then, was this idea to have a California exhibit originated?"

"Well, the fact of the matter is, we Canadians think a great deal of California. You see, we eat your fruit all the year round, and, although we seldom taste your wine, we have a great deal about it. I am satisfied that California wine is going to make a 'hit' in the Dominion. There is no reason why it should not, for the tariff on it is no higher than that on other foreign importations, and the freight will amount to about the same. California will undoubtedly benefit by exhibiting, and Toronto would be delighted to have a California exhibit, not only of wine, but of other resources, added to its next exposition."

Mr. Walker intends to spend several weeks in San Francisco.

THE NEEDLES DISASTER.

Further Details of the Accident on the Atlantic and Pacific.

ALBUQUERQUE (N. M.), Feb. 28.—[Special.] The remains of Engineer Hodgdon and Brakeman Gilbert, who were killed in the wreck on Sunday morning on the Atlantic and Pacific Railway near The Needles, were brought here this evening, and the wounded postal clerk, Pipper, who is suffering with internal injuries, and the Pullman car conductor, who sustained a broken leg, the fireman, who first saw the burning bridge, yelled to the engineer to jump, and saved his own life by jumping. The engineer applied air-brakes and reversed his engine and succeeded in saving part of the train. Fortunately, the ladies' coach and smoking car, which were filled with passengers, were in the rear of the train, which is the custom on this road. The engine, mail, express and combination baggage and Pullman cars ran into the bridge. Nearly all the baggage and express matter and mail were consumed by the flames. Three Navajo Indians and one unknown white tramp, who were stealing a ride between the engine and mail car, were killed. None of the passengers sustained more than slight concussions. A California excursion train was delayed at the scene of the wreck several hours. The track is now clear.

THE NEEDLES, Feb. 28.—[By the Associated Press.] The persons who were injured in the accident on the Atlantic and Pacific Railway by the train going through a burned bridge on Saturday night were brought in here last night and everything was done for their comfort. Engineer Hodgdon died early yesterday. His bravery and presence of mind in applying the air-brakes and reversing his engine saved many lives. The company had physicians on hand soon after the accident, and the injured are all doing well. Express Messenger Thompson, although injured, worked at the wreck and saved nearly all the treasure, about $300,000. The balance of the express was a total loss. All the east-bound mail except four paper pouches was rescued. Only two or three trunks were saved of all the baggage. The remains of Brakeman Gilbert were picked up on the bridge, and the ladies came from one of the lamps exploding in the mail car. How the bridge caught fire no one seems to know. A track was built around the wreck and trains are now running on time. The wrecked train consisted of seven cars, containing about seventy passengers.

A Bank Safe Robbed.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 28.—A special from Canton, Mo., says: "Burglars entered the bank at Lagrange, Mo., last night and blew open the safe, securing all the valuables therein, amounting in all to $21,000, most of which was in bonds and notes. The robbers escaped, leaving no clue as to their identity."

Mauna Loa Still Active.

MORRISON DYING.

The Chief Justice Sinking Rapidly.

Gossip Already Rife as to the Appointment of His Successor.

Toronto Desires California Products for Her Coming Exposition.

What the Canadian Agent Says of the Dominion's Interest in the Golden State—Later Details of the Railroad Disaster Near The Needles.

By Telegram to The Times.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—[Special.] The condition of Chief Justice Morrison, of the Supreme Court, excites the greatest alarm. For several years he has been a very sick man, and for the last two years he has rapidly declined. On inquiry today at his rooms at the Occidental Hotel it was learned that he had grown worse during the past two days, and his physicians are of the opinion that he cannot last throughout the present week. He is so weak tonight that he cannot speak in an audible voice. Speculation is already rife as to who will be his successor. The Governor has the appointive power, and although names of candidates are as yet only mentioned in a whisper, it is well known that the strongest kind of an effort will be made by certain influences to secure the appointment of Jeremiah F. Sullivan, late Superior Judge of this city, and defeated candidate on the Democratic ticket during the last State election. The fact that he was one of the two defeated Democratic candidates is rather in his favor. One reason for this is that Gov. Bartlett will not feel obliged to go into the present bench to secure a candidate. To do so would only tend to create ill-feeling among the other Justices. Another reason in Sullivan's favor is that he made the strongest run of the defeated candidates. Thirdly, he is a San Francisco Judge, and lastly, but by no means least, he has the strong support of the Roman Catholic Church. That Mr. Sullivan will use every possible influence to secure the appointment is well known, while at the same time he will rely on his notoriety as the Judge who rendered the decision in the famous Sharon-Hill divorce case of unsavory memory.

From the representatives a board of directors and officers were selected to carry out the project. This was in 1876."

"Does the United States usually contribute to these fairs?" was asked.

"No; very seldom. Occasionally we get an exhibit from some of the bee-hives of the United States, and I believe, Dakota gave us a display one year."

"In what manner, then, was this idea to have a California exhibit originated?"

"Well, the fact of the matter is, we Canadians think a great deal of California. You see, we eat your fruit all the year round, and, although we seldom taste your wine, we have a great deal about it. I am satisfied that California wine is going to make a 'hit' in the Dominion. There is no reason why it should not, for the tariff on it is no higher than that on other foreign importations, and the freight will amount to about the same. California will undoubtedly benefit by exhibiting, and Toronto would be delighted to have a California exhibit, not only of wine, but of other resources, added to its next exposition."

THE NEEDLES DISASTER.

Further Details of the Accident on the Atlantic and Pacific.

ALBUQUERQUE (N. M.), Feb. 28.—[Special.] The remains of Engineer Hodgdon and Brakeman Gilbert, who were killed in the wreck on Sunday morning on the Atlantic and Pacific Railway near The Needles, were brought here this evening, and the wounded postal clerk, Pipper, who is suffering with internal injuries, and the Pullman car conductor, who sustained a broken leg, the fireman, who first saw the burning bridge, yelled to the engineer to jump, and saved his own life by jumping. The engineer applied air-brakes and reversed his engine and succeeded in saving part of the train. Fortunately, the ladies' coach and smoking car, which were filled with passengers, were in the rear of the train, which is the custom on this road. The engine, mail, express and combination baggage and Pullman cars ran into the bridge. Nearly all the baggage and express matter and mail were consumed by the flames. Three Navajo Indians and one unknown white tramp, who were stealing a ride between the engine and mail car, were killed. None of the passengers sustained more than slight concussions. A California excursion train was delayed at the scene of the wreck several hours. The track is now clear.

A Bank Safe Robbed.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 28.—A special from Canton, Mo., says: "Burglars entered the bank at Lagrange, Mo., last night and blew open the safe, securing all the valuables therein, amounting in all to $21,000, most of which was in bonds and notes. The robbers escaped, leaving no clue as to their identity."

Mauna Loa Still Active.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—The steamer Gaelic, which arrived today from Hong Kong, via Honolulu, reports another outbreak of lava from Mauna Loa. All the craters were in great activity when the steamer left Honolulu.

Hodgdon died early yesterday. His bravery and presence of mind in applying the air-brakes and reversing his engine saved many lives. The company had physicians on hand soon after the accident, and the injured are all doing well. Express Messenger Thompson, although injured, worked at the wreck and saved nearly all the treasure, about $300,000. The balance of the express was a total loss. All the east-bound mail except four paper pouches was rescued. Only two or three trunks were saved of all the baggage. The remains of Brakeman Gilbert were picked up on the bridge, and the ladies came from one of the lamps exploding in the mail car. How the bridge caught fire no one seems to know. A track was built around the wreck and trains are now running on time. The wrecked train consisted of seven cars, containing about seventy passengers.

A WOMAN HANGED.

Execution of Mrs. Druse for the Murder of Her Husband.

HERKIMER (N. Y.), Feb. 28.—[By the Associated Press.] Roxalana Druse, who murdered her husband, George Druse, in December, 1884, was hanged for the crime at noon today. After services, last evening, Mrs. Druse remained up until about 11:30. Deputy Sheriff Mannion, with Mr. and Mrs. Waterman, who composed the death watch, induced her to lie down, and she had about an hour of sleep. She awakened with a start, and upon arising, began to write letters as calmly as she had at any time during her incarceration. In one of these she thanked the Sheriff for his kindness to her, and asked that her body might be given to her sister for Christian burial. After writing she lay down again and fell into a dose. She was attacked with hysteria, in violent form, and it required considerable effort upon the part of the wardens to calm her. During the night she ate one of the heartiest meals she had eaten since she was a prisoner. She had about two hours of rest after 4 a. m., but did not sleep soundly at any time. Rev. Dr. Powell visited Mrs. Druse about 9, and did all in his power to calm her and prepare her for the awful moment. The execution was witnessed by 25 persons, including the officers.

THE EXECUTION.

At 11:45 Mrs. Druse and Dr. Powell knelt on the floor of the scaffold under the rope. Mrs. Druse held her daughter's bonnet in her hand and closed her eyes while Dr. Powell offered prayer. Mrs. Druse was dressed in a black cashmere with laced neck and sleeves. She wore a small shawl over her shoulders. She maintained her composure on the scaffold until the cap was drawn over her face, when she began to moan, and finally began to scream so loudly that she could be heard in the street adjoining the jail. The trap was sprung and after she fell she made but one convulsive movement.

MRS. DRUSE'S CONFESSION.

Just before going to the scaffold, Mrs. Druse made an affidavit declaring that her daughter Mary, now confined in the Onondaga Penitentiary, had nothing whatever to do with the killing of her father. "I confess," said Mrs. Druse, "that I had a confession to Dr. Powell, my spiritual adviser, in which she declared that Charles Gates had instigated her to commit the murder, and that she provided her with a revolver. She declared that after she had fired the first shot Gates fired the three succeeding shots from the window. She confessed to having cut up her husband's body, and that she took the body away and burned it. She claimed she killed Druse because he had treated her cruelly and brutally."

Robbed by a Pullman Car.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 28.—Sgt. Cohen, a well known diamond broker, horseman and book-maker of Chicago, was robbed of $100 in money and $3000 worth of diamonds in a Pullman sleeper on the Iron Mountain road last night, while on his way from Memphis to Chicago. Upon retiring last night Cohen placed his case of diamonds in the inner pocket of his coat, which he hung up in his berth. When dressing this morning he discovered that he had been robbed of the diamonds and money. An investigation showed that the occupants of the adjoining berth, who had watched Cohen's actions closely the previous evening, and who jumped from the train at South St. Louis, leaving their tickets to Chicago with the porter, were the probable robbers. A description of the men has been telegraphed to the police of all the large cities.

A $350,000 Fire in New York.

New York, Feb. 28.—Two lighters filled with cotton, and the steamer Lone Star, of the Morgan steamship line, were burned at the foot of Charlton street, North River. The steamer and lighters were towed in mid-stream to save other shipping near by. It is reported that one man was burned to death on the steamer. Several sailors jumped into the river to save themselves. The Lone Star is the steamer which ran into and sank the British steamer Wells City a few weeks ago. The Lone Star was damaged about $100,000, and was beached on the Jersey shore. The loss on the Lone Star was about $300,000. There were about 4000 bales of cotton stored there. Some of this was saved. The loss on cotton was about $150,000.

Sale of a Famous Vineyard.

SAN JOSE, Feb. 28.—Preliminary arrangements have been made for the transfer of the famous Burgundy vineyard, six miles west of the city, owned by J. P. J. Parial, to an English syndicate. The price has been fixed at $134,000 for land, improvements, name and good will. The stock of wine and brandy on hand is not included in the purchase. Final action in the matter has been delayed to allow an organization of local capitalists to purchase the place. A boom in vineyards in this county is expected.

Poor Topolobampoists.

REXSON (ARIZ.), Feb. 28.—Private advices from Sonora confirm the report about the dissatisfaction of the Topolobampo colonists on account of the existence of smallpox among them. Nearly sixty are said to be afflicted and six have died with the malady. Large numbers are now at Guaymas, not having funds to get out of Mexico. Special instances of destitution are cited. The last lot of emigrants are reported to be making arrangements to return North and East.

Result of an Old Feud.

SAN RAFAEL, Feb. 28.—A tragedy took place this morning at the vineyard of C. Grojean, near this place. George Washburn shot Jean Dandon with a shotgun, and then killed himself. Dandon's condition is critical. The men were laboring on the vineyard. The shooting was the result of a long-standing feud.

A Bank Safe Robbed.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 28.—A special from Canton, Mo., says: "Burglars entered the bank at Lagrange, Mo., last night and blew open the safe, securing all the valuables therein, amounting in all to $21,000, most of which was in bonds and notes. The robbers escaped, leaving no clue as to their identity."

SANTA BARBARA, Feb. 28.—[By the Associated Press.] Great excitement prevails in this city in consequence of a well-founded rumor that the Santa Fé Railroad Company has got control of the narrow-gauge road from Port Harford to Los Alamos, in this county, and is grading between Los Alamos and Gaviota Pass, with a view to heading off the Southern Pacific and preventing that company from going through that pass.

SAN FRANCISCO.

A Soldier to be Court-martialed for Desertion Many Years Ago.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—[By the Associated Press.] Judge Sawyer today remanded to the custody of the army authorities Louis Zimmerman, who twelve years ago deserted from the United States Army, and who, a short time ago, feeling liable to arrest, surrendered himself and was at once imprisoned. Zimmerman swore out a writ of habeas corpus in the Circuit Court, alleging that his enlistment was illegal, as he was under age at the time. The case was argued and decided as above. He will be tried by Court-martial.

THE JEFFREYS-LEWIS DIVORCE CASE.

Mrs. Maltland, better known as Jeffreys-Lewis, the actress, was today granted a divorce from F. A. Maltland, on the ground of the latter's cruelty and failure to support her. ## LEGISLATIVE PROCEEDINGS.

Senate.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 28.—[By the Associated Press.] The Senate met at 2:30 o'clock.

The Assembly bill providing an additional Superior Judge for San Bernardino county was read a second time.

The Senate bill prohibiting the employment of minors for the delivery of notes or telegrams to houses of ill-repute was read a second time and ordered to a third reading.

The Assembly this afternoon was mostly occupied with the first reading of bills.

Hopeless Disagreement on the Subject of Retaliation.

The River and Harbor Bill Cut Down to $10,000,000 and Passed—Operation as to the Necessity of an Extra Session—Miscellaneous Matters.

By Telegram to The Times.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—[By the Associated Press.] James Munroe Trotter was nominated today to be recorder of deeds for the District of Columbia. He is a colored citizen of the State of Massachusetts, 45 years of age. His early life was spent in the State of Ohio, where he began his education in the public schools. For the past 35 years he has resided in Massachusetts, where, prior to the war, he was a teacher. Soon after the breaking out of the rebellion he enlisted as a private in the Fifty-fifth Massachusetts Regiment, colored troops, and was promoted for acts of bravery on the battlefield until he became a lieutenant. Upon his return to civil life he was appointed and filled for 15 years the position of assistant superintendent of the registered letter department in the Boston postoffice. From this position he was retired in 1884 on account, it is said, of his independence in politics and his avowed purpose of supporting President Cleveland.

PASSED BY THE SENATE.

In the Senate today the House bill in reference to the employment of convict or penal labor upon public buildings or public works, or in the preparation of material for public buildings or public works, was passed. The bill now goes to the President for signature.

Upon motion of Mr. Plumb, the House bill to provide for the adjustment of land grants heretofore made by Congress and remaining unadjusted was taken up, and after sundry amendments, was passed, and a conference was ordered upon it.

The House Arbitration Bill was passed by the Senate without amendment. The bill was introduced at the last session by Representative O'Neill of Missouri. It was somewhat amended by the House before its passage by that body. It now only requires the signature of the President to make it a law.

The Senate bill to prohibit the mailing of newspapers and other periodicals containing lottery advertisements was taken up and passed.

THE PACIFIC RAILWAY RESOLUTION.

The Senate amendments to the Pacific Railway investigation resolution, with a single exception, are understood to be acceptable to the House Committee on Pacific Railways, but the clause providing for the appointment of commissioners by the President "by and with the advice and consent of the Senate" is regarded as so objectionable that a conference is necessary. The President has indicated that if the words "by and with the advice and consent of the Senate" remain in the resolution he cannot appoint the commissioners before the assembling of the next Congress. His reason for so holding is that according to the decisions of the Attorney-General the resolution does not create such an office as can be filled when Congress is not in session.

THE PLEURO-PNEUMONIA BILL.

On motion of Mr. Miller the Pleuro-pneumonia Bill was taken up by the Senate. Upon the motion made by Mr. Denison to reconsider the vote by which Mr. Edmunds's substitute was last week adopted, the vote stood 30 to 23, so the motion to reconsider was carried. The question then recurring on Mr. Edmunds's substitute, his reason for making a motion that further consideration be postponed until tomorrow. Lost—56 to 35. Mr. Edmunds's substitute was then rejected—yeas 33, nays 23.

Mr. Vest offered an amendment requiring the assent of the authorities of a State before a commissioner can expend any of the appropriation therein. Lost—yeas 34, nays 36.

Mr. Van Wyck renewed his amendment extending the application of the bill to swine-plague and cholera and other contagious diseases among swine. Adopted.

The bill was passed—yeas 30, nays 30.

SUPPLEMENTARY COLE'S MEMORY.

At its session this evening the House proceeded to the consideration of resolutions expressive of regret at the demise of Representative Cole of Maryland and honoring his memory. Eulogistic addresses were delivered and the resolutions were then adopted. The resolutions were introduced by the House on the Legislative Appropriation Bill.

DISAGREEMENT ABOUT RETALIATION.

The House conferees on the bill to authorize the President to protect and defend the rights of American fishing vessels (the Fisheries Retaliation Bill) have prepared a statement which will be submitted to the House at the first opportunity. The report begins as follows: "The unanimity expressed in the Senate and House of Representatives repeatedly has given the managers on the part of the House a very strong reason to hope that by mutual concession an agreement would be reached in conference which would result in giving such ample authority to the President as might be necessary for a satisfactory settlement of the pending question of American fisheries on the Canadian coast. It is therefore with the deepest regret and disappointment that we are compelled to report disagreement."

The report is signed by Messrs. Belmont and Clements. Mr. Rice, of Massachusetts, does not join in the report. It is believed that no request will be made by the House for further conference, and any overture in that direction must come from the Senate.

CUTTING DOWN AN APPROPRIATION.

The success of the River and Harbor Appropriation Bill has been assured by a complete agreement of the conferees on the points of difference between the two houses. The total appropriation made by the bill, as agreed upon in conference, is less than $10,000,000.

EXTRA SESSION TALK.

War is brewing between the two houses of Congress. Members of the Senate Committee on Appropriations, who are usually very guarded in their utterances, make no concealment of their opinion that an extra session is now almost inevitable, nor do they hesitate to place the blame where they think it belongs. After two or three conferences on the Sundry Civil Bill last week, which were almost nullified by the early withdrawal of the House conferees, a meeting was secured yesterday morning, which was intended by the Senate members to last through the day and through last night as well, if necessary, to complete the bill and clear the desk for the remaining appropriation bills.

Armour's Latest Big Scheme.

ital for the purpose of immediately operating throughout the South twelve gigantic cotton seed oil mills. Armour and his partners will hold the controlling interest in the big company. The associate stockholders will comprise about all the leading soap manufacturers in the United States. The entire output of the mills will be taken by the stockholders and utilized in other factories and land-rendering establishments.

Printers to Strike.

MILWAUKEE, Feb. 28.—The printers on the Sentinel and Journal will probably strike at noon tomorrow. They demand an increase of five cents and several other concessions, which the publishers refuse. Didn't Get Vaccinated.

Two bright young ladies of Temple street were determined on having their futures foretold by a certain clairvoyant last Saturday. They were out of pin money, but their mothers gave them $1.25 each to get vaccinated, and this was their only way. They went to the witch instead of the M. D. and when they got through and found they had an aggregate of three husbands between them for future amusement they very logically concluded that, as a matter of course, taking the smallpox was out of the question, and were so elated they failed to keep the secret, as at first resolved upon.

Sympathy with France to be Firmly Weeded Out.

The Berlin Press Complains of French Military Preparations.

New Alarmist Reports from the East—Russia Concentrating Large Bodies of Troops in Central Asia and Poland—Other News from Abroad.

By Telegram to The Times.

BERLIN, Feb. 28.—[By Cable.] A dispatch from Strasbourg to the Post announces that the government has issued an order for the dissolution of the Alsatian choral societies, it being suspected that the union has assisted the objects of the French League of Patriots. It is further reported that the laws dealing with the societies will be rigorously enforced; that the measure forbidding French military men to stay in Alsace, except on special permit, will be applied to civilians, and that societies which, as a matter of common knowledge, exclude Germans will be dissolved. Some law is considered necessary to deal with French emissaries, press correspondents and others, who, it is claimed, have been acting as electoral agents, inciting the malcontents, freely visiting the fortifications and doing the work of spies. Advocates of effective Germanization desire a temporary suspension of electoral rights in Alsace-Lorraine, German education in the primary schools, and government administration in place of municipal councils.

The Hanover Scher Courier says: "Alsations must blame themselves if one result of the elections be the application to their provinces of the laws of absolute dictatorship. When made to understand that another war with France will be the complete ruin of the provinces, the Alsations, perhaps, will be ready to vote for German candidates."

On the other hand, the Boersen Courier contends that the conquest of the provinces will be the work of generations, and demands patience. "The feeling of patriotism today shown toward France will revert to Germany when the justice of German rule effaces from the minds of the people the effects of two centuries of French domination."

The Nachrichten says: The situation has not yet lost its threatening character compelling Germany to provide for every contingency. Among the warlike preparations of France during the past week may be noted the fact that 241 truck-loads of planks and beams passed the frontier stations, that immense orders have been given for steel tubes for firearms, that the rolling stock of the French northern and eastern railways has been massed in large parks at various points, and the work of finally clearing the glacial at Celfort and other points has begun.

Windthorst has written an indignant denial of the statements of Noell, National Liberal candidate at Aschaffenburg, that he (Windthorst) wished to restore the throne of Hanover, with the aid of a foreign power. CARDINAL JACOBINI'S DEATH.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—The report of the death of Cardinal Jacobini, which was received here on Saturday afternoon and called hence to New York, proved to have been premature. ALARMING REPORTS FROM THE EAST.

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—[By the Associated Press.] The Star's London correspondent cables: "The outlook in the East grows hourly more threatening. The Times publishes a letter from a correspondent at Vienna to the effect that the relations of Russia with Germany and Austria are severely strained, and what is more serious, no further attempts are made in official circles to conceal the fact. Dispatches from other sources confirm this."

"The Levant Herald, whose special correspondence has recently been making glowing reports of Russian armaments, declares that the Russian force now concentrated in Central Asia, equipped for active service in the field, numbers fully 300,000 men of all arms. These three divisions, of 50,000 to 60,000 men each, are ready to march on Afghanistan at a few days' notice. Reports have recently been received of the Russian troops who are massed in Russian Poland, respecting which it has been so difficult to obtain information. These reports prove that Russia has made enormous preparations for an offensive war. Russian Poland is described as one vast camp of armed men."

OUR NEIGHBORS.

Iron-Sulphur Springs, AND THE COUNTRY ROUNDO ABOUT.

[Correspondence of THE TIMES.] The most important fact to us now is that the surveys of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fé Railroad are now running a line from Anaheim to Los Angeles, and are now passing in full view of the Sulphur Springs Hotel. If this line is adopted, the depot will be one-half mile south of the hotel. The surveys state that another line will be run about three miles north of the present line, and one just north of this hotel, before it is determined which to select. Owing to the fact that the Santa Fé Railroad authorities concluded to construct the San Gabriel Valley branch before this one, the sale of real estate in this neighborhood slacked up some, but people are getting in earnest again, and all looks as if boom is approaching. Some town lots were sold this week. This townsite is an attractive one. The high table-land, solid sandy roads, rich mesa soil, with a little frost as Pasadena in winter, and a delightful summer climate, an abundant supply of rain water which will be piped for $10 per acre on the highest points near here—all these give this place peculiar attractions that many good towns have not. Another fact should be mentioned: the best iron and sulphur waters flow from the artesian wells or springs in constant streams the year round, and the best of fresh water is found 40 to 50 feet below the surface.

This place is a delightful summer home. The Springs Hotel is filled with old citizens of Los Angeles, Pasadena and Riverside every summer. The hotter the summer, the greater the crowd. This pleasant summer region extends from Gov. Downey's old home—a fine farm now owned by Col. Sanford—thence through the town of Sulphur Springs, and on east for about one mile. This ridge has a rich valley of land north of it, where land is extremely low. Along the foothills one and a half miles north of this ridge, as well as the mesa land, is as fine land for raising grapes as can be found. A prominent Rustin man lately sold his place there and moved here, and purchased as good land for less than one-third of the price of the unimproved land of that rich section. Other men of that region express the intention to follow. Everything can be raised in this neighborhood that Californians care to grow.

SAN DIEGO'S BONDS.

$400,000 Voted for Sewers by a Big Majority.

San Diego held a special election Saturday, the question being on the voting of $400,000 bonds for a system of sewerage. Sunday's Union says:

One thousand and eighty-four votes for, 83 votes against, was the verdict of the electors of San Diego on the sewer bond question yesterday. The vote by precincts shows an overwhelming majority for the bonds in all except the first, or Old Town precinct. The figures are:

Wards.	For.	Against.
First.....	6	13
Second.....	147	20
Third.....	319	20
Fourth.....	457	19
Fifth.....	160	13

The result gives great joy to the friends of progress and improvement. It is a compliment to the good sense of the people of San Diego, a compliment to their enterprise, a proof of their own faith in their own future. We feel confident that the results will justify every word that was uttered in urging support of the bond proposition. A week will not elapse until the beneficial effects of yesterday's balloting will be apparent. Of course, the direct benefits of the sewers will have to await their building, but the certainty that they will be built will inspire confidence and stimulate every business interest.

Success always brings with it responsibility. The judicious expenditure of so large a sum as $400,000 will demand that its disbursement be committed to men of sagacity, prudence and honesty. The result of yesterday's election increases the importance of the approaching city election. There should be as much enthusiasm manifested in selecting the next Board of City Trustees as was yesterday in favor of the bonds, and as much unanimity in electing them to office. Yesterday's victory would be a barren one if the treasure then voted were wasted or squandered.

A Boycott.

Whereas, an agency is about to be established in this city to furnish mill work for buildings manufactured in Stockton by ten-hour labor; therefore, be it

RESIGNED.

Judge Brunson to Leave the Bench in April.

The public were startled and grieved yesterday by the resignation of Judge Anson Brunson, of Department Two of the Superior Court. At 10 a. m. in open court he announced that his official resignation, to take effect April 1, is in the hands of the Secretary of State. He spoke feelingly of the unusually cordial relations which had existed between himself and the whole bar of Los Angeles county. He felt lively regret at severing ties so pleasant, but deemed that the duty he owed his family left him no other course. The announcement was received with deep regret by all the members of the bar, the courthouse officials, and the public in general. Judge Brunson's record upon the bench has been most honorable, and his discharge of his important duties has won for him a wide and enviable reputation. He came to this city eighteen years ago, and began the practice of law here. At the time his resignation takes effect he will have occupied the Superior bench two years and three months. Last fall he was a leading candidate for the Supreme bench—a position for which he had conceded his eminent fitness—and his defeat in the State convention was due to the treachery of persons who have since received a bitter reward. Judge Brunson said yesterday afternoon, in response to queries by a Times representative: "I am sorry to leave a position where every relation has been so pleasant, but I owe a paramount duty to my family. I am no longer young; I cannot afford to stay in so unremunerative a position. It is time for me to make provision for those whom I must leave. I have accepted the position of general solicitor for California of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad Company. I hope to be of some service still to the people of Southern California. The position is remunerative, and practically for life. No, I do not care to state the salary. [From other sources it is understood to be $10,000.] My office will be here, and I shall live and die here."

DESERTED.

An Unhappy Wife Abandoned to Lonely Poverty.

Martinez, a Mexican, somewhat aged, married a young French girl about 20 years old in San Francisco about a year ago. They settled in Upper Main street and taught a private school. About three weeks ago, at the time of the floods, Martinez disappeared, and his wife thought he was drowned. Subsequently she received a letter from him, telling her to look in a certain book. She looked and found a letter, in which he said he was going to leave her, as he could not support her any longer. The unfortunate woman is now at the French hospital, and will soon become a mother. She is half-demented with grief. Martinez is in San Francisco.

Another Result of Climate.

The San Bernardino Times has a poet laureate, and this is the way he does it up: "How many men in jail today?" we thus to the Sheriff said, and he turned to his book with a troubled look, and a shake of his manly head. "There's thirty-five, if they're all alive, down there for various crimes, and some for murder, and some for rape, but most for begging dimes. There's Richard Roe and Johnny Doe, too numerous to name. There's Bob O'Rafferty, Tim McCafferty, besides old Jim McEneaney, and lots of bums from all the slums of Colton, far away, who came by stealth to this land of wealth, from the city on the bay. And every cell, the tanks as well, are crowded full of men; and when they go, we treat them so they come right back again. And every day, do all we may, it gets no better fast; for all our work they firmly shrink, and the trouble's growing vast. When our wise men meet in their pen, and give us leave to do it, we'll make them mull, we'll make them toil, or else we'll make them rue it. We'll tie them to a ball and chain, and put them in the street, and then, as sure as you're born, they'll work or get nothing to eat!"

A Different Brick.
The "gold" brick on which I. S. Sherman was done out of $1700—as exclusively published in Sunday's Times—was not the same one that is now at the police office. Sherman's brick weighs 30 pounds; the present one weighs about 20. When Sherman discovered the swindle, Sherman's partner, a man named Sigler, took the brick away, and said he threw it into the river.

Wilcox has kindly given office room for the agency of the Humane Society, in this city, at 34 North Spring street, and the agent can be found in his office hereafter at that place.

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS.
ON WASHINGTON ST., 100 FEET WIDE.

The future grand boulevard from Los Angeles to the Pacific Ocean. The plateau of ARLINGTON HEIGHTS offers the most magnificent view to be beheld in Southern California, embracing the whole of the Los Angeles Valley and extending from San Pedro and Santa Monica on the Pacific Ocean, across the plains to the foothills, and up to the snowy heights of the Sierra Madre Mountains. This tableland, or mesa, is perfectly level and unbroken, but 90 feet higher than the elevation of Spring or Main streets. To reach it there are no hills to climb, and the streets leading from the center of Los Angeles city up to it follow the same even grade it is as easy of access as Washington Gardens. The soil of ARLINGTON HEIGHTS is a rich loam, mellow and friable all seasons and easy to cultivate. The vineyards and orchards in the neighborhood of the heights demonstrate that every acre of ARLINGTON HEIGHTS will produce grapes and fruit without irrigation. A street of the heights is struck anywhere on the tract at a depth of from 30 to 40 feet. The plateau of ARLINGTON HEIGHTS is unequalled for health. A gentle breeze from the Pacific Ocean fans it daily; sea fogs never reach its elevation, and the air is almost unknown on the heights. The most tender plants, such as tomato vines, bear fruit there every day of the year. The Santa Monica, and of the S. P. R. R., runs alongside this elegant tract; the present terminus of the electric street railroad is distant one-half mile from the heights. It is expected that it will be extended to and through ARLINGTON HEIGHTS. A Washington street is now being extended through this tract. The elevated plateau of ARLINGTON HEIGHTS terminates in a ridge of desert of 40 feet just south of Adams street, and in a similar ridge north of Pico street. On these ridges are located the most magnificent building sites in Los Angeles. No houses can ever be built high enough in front of them to obstruct that glorious view of mountains, valley and ocean from Catalina Island to San Jacinto Peak, and down again over the broad acres, orchards and vineyards, of Fair Los Angeles Valley, to the blue waves of the Pacific Ocean beyond the coast of Santa Monica. Whosoever wishes for a beautiful home, should select from the acres of this busy city, but within a twenty minutes' drive of the Plaza, should select in ARLINGTON HEIGHTS a lot of 1/4 acre whereon to build his house.

During the last few years it has occurred frequently that men have bought two or three acres in Los Angeles, sold one-half in lots for the price of the whole, and retained valuable grounds for a home, thus free of cost. Such chances are offered today in ARLINGTON HEIGHTS. The present owners, Dan McFarland, William H. Bonnell, Theodore Wiesendanger, Messrs. J. P. and Edw. McCarthy, Turner and McElrath, purchased this large body of land at a low price; they offer it now in smaller tracts, or lots, at prices to suit all, and purchasers who make their selections now get all the benefit of a first choice for bargains in a vast tract of land. Every city has its one fashionable suburb, not too distant from the center of activity nor too near its noisy streets. ARLINGTON HEIGHTS, through a happy combination of advantages, promises to become what St. Cloud is to Paris, or Richmond to the city of London.

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS hitherto was one vast body of land of nearly 700 acres. Our map shows a magnificent subdivision of it into 54-acre blocks, 800 feet wide, including the tract each containing 24 lots 50 by 200 feet, and each surrounded on all sides by streets 60, 80 or 100 feet wide. Investors who are able to appreciate the importance of a well-planned subdivision will foretell a great future to this tract, with its miles of wide streets intersecting each other at right angles. The elegant lawns and stately mansions of the rich will be found here within a short time, and business men who take advantage of our low prices and easy terms will reap a golden harvest of their investment in ARLINGTON HEIGHTS.

DR. M. HILTON WILLIAMS

Continues to treat all the various diseases of the Head, Throat and Chest, including the Eye, Ear and Heart, by his new and complete system of Medicated Inhalations, combined with proper constitutional remedies for the Stomach, Liver and Blood, etc. Probably there has never been any system of practice so popular as one that has so completely revolutionized the system of medical practice as the Aerial or Inhalation System, for head, throat or lung affections. The cures effected are simply marvelous, and can be substantiated by the very best citizens of Los Angeles. During the past three years we have endeavored to be conscientious with our patients, and if, upon examination, we find, in our judgment, the case to be of an incurable nature, we unhesitatingly inform the patient or friends. We believe this system to be justifiable and are ready to condemn any physician who would do otherwise. Below we give a sample of the cures effected by us.

LOS ANGELES (Cal.), Sept. 24, 1886.
Dr. M. Hilton Williams—DEAR SIR: I have been contemplating for some time writing you a statement of my case and the benefit I have derived from your treatment, remembering how glad I would be to tell you of my recovery. I have been the kind of a person in the city to whom I could have referred, what a relief it would be to me from my home in New York State.

I had been suffering for several years with various physicians in the East pronounced "chronic ulcerated laryngitis." I spent considerable time at the Clinica, and I have been unable to use it. I could find, all without any permanent benefit, and a last resort, our family physician recommended Los Angeles. I was improved, and then I began to go backward and all my former symptoms returned.

Through a medical friend I was induced to try your treatment, which I did on Sept. 23, 1886. I was very much discouraged at times, but persevered, as I felt almost desperate and knew of nothing to do. My throat trouble, being aggravated by a serious stomach difficulty, made it very difficult to eat, but at last, after persevering for a time with the use of your remedies, I consider I am permanently cured. If this will be of any value to you, you are at perfect liberty to use it; also to refer any one to my mother, my husband or myself. Very truly yours, J. D. WILSON, 221 Olive street, Los Angeles, Cal.

To the many testimonials won by Dr. Williams it gives me pleasure to add my own to the list. I have been suffering from throat and lung trouble, brought on by catarrh. Had tried many remedies in the meantime, but found only temporary relief. After two months' treatment, prescribed by Dr. Williams, my cough left me altogether, and I now have no pain in my throat or lungs as formerly. I cannot speak too highly of the benefits I have received, and shall ever be grateful to one who is worthy of the highest recommendation.

Dr. Williams—DEAR SIR: I write to tell you how much I thank you for what you have done me. My catarrh and deafness, which have been a burden to me for so long a time, are entirely cured, and my general health so much improved that I feel like a different person.
